

THOMAS G. ANCHORDOQUY

Principal
Investment Services Group

CAREER SUMMARY

Tom Anchordoquy began his real estate career in 1977 as a project manager with development responsibilities for residential and industrial projects. He entered the commercial real estate brokerage field in 1979 when he joined Charles Tingey Associates, where he obtained Top Performer status in retail marketing and eventually managed the Bakersfield office. In 1987, Mr. Anchordoquy, along with partners Mark Smith and Scott Underhill, formed ASU & Associates, Inc. The company affiliated with Grubb & Ellis in 1997, representing the greater Bakersfield and Kern County areas. Tom currently serves as the senior Investment Specialist. In addition, he oversees the company's financial functions including the accounting department.
